Anxiety: The Robber of Tranquility (Part 2)

An understanding of the true purpose of life is necessary when facing anxiety. Anxious is being worried or afraid, especially about something that is going to happen or might happen. Often times we feel anxious about situations in which we have no control. Then there are times when one may live according to the philosophy of 'keeping up with the Jones'. Our Lord says these are the things the Gentiles seek after, but God knows our needs.

Jesus tells us not to worry about things we cannot change. Instead we need to work on a trusting relationship with God. Without trust in the Lord, one will always have unnecessary anxiety and worry. "The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment. If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?" Luke 12:20-26

Simply put, one author writes:

*God grant me the serenity
to accept the things I cannot change;
courage to change the things I can;
and wisdom to know the difference.*
